Sharing personal details with third parties

RPP does not sell your details to third parties and provides it only if necessary for carrying out our agreement with you or to comply with a statutory obligation. With companies that process your details by our commission, we have closed a data processing agreement in order to keep the same level of security and confidentiality of your details. RPP remains responsible for these processes.

Cookies, or similar techniques, that we use

RPP only uses technical and functional cookies. A cookie is a small text file that is saved to your computer, tablet or smartphone during the first visit to the website. The cookies that we use are necessary for the technical functioning of the website and the user friendliness. They make sure that the website works properly and remember for example your preferred settings. We can also optimise our website with this. You can avoid cookies by setting up your internet browser to stop saving cookies. Apart from that you can also delete all the information that was saved in the past through the browser settings.

Viewing, adjusting or deleting details

You have the right to view your personal details, to correct or to delete them. Apart from that you have the right to withdraw possible permission of detail processing or to object the processing of your personal details by RPP and you have the right to data portability. That means that you can request to send the personal details that we have of you in a computer file to you or a different company named by you.

You can send a request for viewing, correction or removal of your personal details or a request for withdrawing your permission or objection to process your personal details to info@responsiblyproducedpeat.org.

In case of uncertainty about your identity, we can – to be sure that the request for viewing is done by you – ask you to send us a copy of your identification. Please blur or blacken your photo, MRZ (machine readable zone, the strip with numbers on the bottom of the passport), passport number and citizen service number (BSN). This is to protect your privacy. We will respond as quickly as possible, but within four weeks, to your request.

Additionally, RPP would like to point out that you have the possibility to file a complaint with the national supervisor, the Dutch DPA (Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens). You can do that through the following link: <https://autoriteitpersoonsgegevens.nl/nl/contact-met-deautoriteit-persoonsgegevens/tip-ons>

How do we protect personal details

RPP takes the protection of your details seriously and takes suitable measures to prevent misuse, loss, unauthorised access, unwanted publication and illegitimate modification. If you are under the impression that your details are not well protected or if there are indications of misuse, please contact RPP through info@responsiblyproducedpeat.org.
